

Chakrabongse Villas

Set on the bank of the Chao Phraya River in the heart of Old Bangkok, Chakrabongse Villas provides a tranquil haven from the hustle and bustle of the modern city and yet is in easy reach of all the major tourist attractions. Four individual suites with all modern facilities are set in a lush tropical garden with a spacious swimming pool. Built in 1908 by HRH Prince Chakrabongse, Chakrabongse House was originally used when he attended royal ceremonies in the Grand Palace and also for picnics and excursions on the river. Later, after the 1932 revolution, it became the residence of HRH Prince Chula Chakrabongse, writer and historian. Today the grounds have been transformed into a magical boutique hotel by his daughter Narisa.

Chinese Suite

Thai House

A traditional Ayutthaya-style wooden house on stilts, situated in the main garden and rebuilt with modern facilities. The large double room has a private verandah overlooking the Danny Lane sculpture pool.

The Chinese Suite, comprising two double rooms en suite, living room and two private terraces is the latest addition to the Villas. Situated in a separate building overlooking the swimming pool and furnished with fine antique Chinese furniture and doors, modern prints and fabrics, the private seclusion of this suite is ideal for a family or two couples.

Riverview Suite

The Riverview Suite is a Thai-style teak apartment with modern facilities set on the river front with a view of the Temple of the Dawn. The luxury suite has a large double bedroom, kitchenette, bathroom, study, sitting room and private verandah.

Guestbook Comments:

A paradise within the bustling city... this boutique hotel was the perfect choice for seeing local sites like the Grand Palace, Wat Pho and just a short jaunt away from the amazing flower market. Our stay could not have been more enjoyable!!!

To call this place 'perfect' would be paying it an injustice. From the moment I stepped through the doors of Chakrabongse Villas, I have felt overwhelmingly welcome. The food was exquisite. My room, calm, peaceful, meditative. R. UK.

Chakrabongse Villas was a simply beautiful place to stay. An excellent little retreat to be in busy Bangkok. Wonderful service, extremely kind staff and great food. We enjoyed one of their lovely dinner overlooking the river. A culinary experience not to be missed!! Thank you for everything. CPS. Vancouver, Canada.

Thank you very very very much for the opportunity for us to have the wedding ceremony here at the villas. This place is the most memorable & irresistible place we've ever found in our entire lives. Much love, HO. & CC. Japan / New York.
